

Interagency Council on Printing and Publications Services

federal publishing in the information age

You are Invited to Attend the Upcoming Meeting of the Interagency Council on Printing and Publication Services (ICPPS)

February 11, 2015, 1:00 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.
GPO Headquarters — Carl Hayden Room
732 North Capitol Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20401

The Board of the Interagency Council on Printing and Publication Services (ICPPS) is extending this invitation to attend the upcoming February meeting of the ICPPS. ICPPS meetings highlight educational webinars and topics of interest to those in the Federal printing and publishing community.

Featured Presentation Topics

Publishing Partnerships: Federal Depository Library Program Requirements and Opportunities for Cooperation – presented by Laurie Hall of GPO

Paper Recycling – presented by Mohawk Paper

The Unique Sustainable Features of Print and Paper – presented by Phil Riebel from Two sides.

To register to attend the February 11, 2015 ICPPS meeting in person, please click HERE.

To register to attend online, please click HERE.

For more information, please contact your GPO National Account Manager or nam@gpo.gov.

The ICPPS was established in 1976 as an advisory body to the Director of the U.S. Government Publishing Office. The ICPPS membership consists of printing officers and other agency printing and publishing professionals from all three branches of the Federal Government. The mission of the ICPPS is to address current and future issues related to the Federal Printing Program and to provide a cooperative forum for federal organizations to work with GPO in the development of new policies.